AGM Elections Information

Vice-President

Lindsay Sutherland is running for re-election for the role of Vice-President: Lindsay has been a member of CAPE since 2015 and has participated in planning conferences since 2021. Lindsay has been in the role of VP since 2024. Lindsay is currently the Director of Products and Services for CPKN and has been working in police training and education for almost 15 years.

Director of Conferences

Darla Blackmore is seeking re-election as Director of Conferences and has been actively involved with CAPE since 2018, currently serving in the role and supporting the planning and delivery of national conference experiences for police educators. With extensive experience in leadership development, learning design, and organizational development and as LD Manager for CPS from 2018-2025, Darla is committed to fostering collaboration, innovation, and professional growth across the CAPE membership for law enforcement and educators.

Director of Communications

Amanda Wong is running for the role of Director of Communications. Amanda has been a member of CAPE since 2025 and is currently an Instructional Designer at JIBC. During her time with CAPE, she has revamped the website, introduced a new newsletter platform and updated its design, and developed the program and promotional materials for last year's conference.

Secretary

Frances Chen is running for re-election for the role of Secretary. Frances has been a member of CAPE since 2025. Frances participated in planning the CAPE 2026 conference in New Westminster, BC. Frances is currently the Records and Compliance Specialist for the JIBC Police Academy.
